

Cartoon. Internet Privacy

(Credit: Walt Handelsman/Tribune Content Agency)

Cartoon Selected by ProQuest Staff

The picture is from We Want Privacy, but Can't Stop Sharing

SIRS Issues Researcher - Suggested Library Resource

SIRS is a good resource to use because of its format that presents a current issue, then both pro and con points of discussion/consideration. You can search “Facebook” as a topic and find articles about this social media platform specifically. Many types of media resources are provided linking your topic to a variety of coverage sources, just follow the links. Use your citation tool for citing the components you end up working with by scrolling to the bottom of the article or using the tool on the top left side of your article screen. You can also use the upload to Google Drive feature to save articles

- From Library Page: <https://bangorhigh.bangorschools.net/student-life/library/>
- Scroll down and select Databases:
- Scroll down Databases page and select SIRS Knowledge Source
- username/password: me0036/04401

From the Main Page, search/click on View All Issues, Technology, then Social Media for articles on Facebook and other social media formats. This is a good place to browse ideas for topics.

<https://sks.sirs.com/webapp/leading-issue?type=sub&keyno=100148>

Cartoon: Data Thieves

(Credit: Walt Handelsman/Tribune Content Agency)

Cartoon Selected by ProQuest Staff

